Student Review Requirements & Re-Crediting a FEE-HELP Balance

Conwal Institute has procedures for review or e-crediting of VET FEE-HELP balance and removing VET FEE-HELP debt if a student has withdrawn or enrolment was on or after the enrolment date or if a student has been unable to complete a VET unit of study due to special circumstances.

In addition, Conwal Institute has policies and procedures for handling refunds of paid tuition fees and/or re-credit of FEE-HELP tuition balance.

The policies and procedures described in this policy are consistent with responsibilities recommended in the following legislation and guidelines:

- Schedule 1A of the Higher Education Support Act (HESA)
- The VET Provider Guidelines
- The VET FEE-HELP Guidelines

Definitions

The Act refers to the Higher Education Support Act 2003

Census Date: A published date, set by the provider, no earlier than 20% of the way through a VET Unit of Study.

Tuition Fees: Fees paid for a VET Unit of Study that is approved for VET FEE-HELP and applies to students who are, or would be entitled to VET FEE-HELP assistance under clause 43 of Schedule 1A of the Act.

Unit or VET Unit of Study: A VET unit of study approved for VET FEE-HELP that a student may undertake with Conwal and Associates Pty Ltd, for which the student may access VET FEE-HELP assistance to pay for all or part of their tuition fees.

Incurring a VET FEE-HELP Debt

A Student who is, or would be, eligible for VET FEE-HELP and has requested VET FEE-HELP Assistance, who withdraws from a Unit on or before the census date will not incur a VET FEE-HELP debt for the tuition fees for that Unit.

Students who have requested VET FEE-HELP Assistance who remain enrolled after the published census date will incur a VET FEE-HELP debt. A Student who withdraws from a Unit after the published census date for that Unit will incur a VET FEE-HELP debt for that Unit.

Re-crediting a FEE-HELP Balance

Students who withdraw from a Unit after the published census date, or fail to complete a Unit, may apply to have their FEE-HELP balance re-credited with respect to the Unit if they believe special circumstances apply in accordance with the following procedures.
Special Circumstances

If a Student withdraws from a Unit after the published census date for that Unit, or has been unable to successfully complete a Unit and believes this was due to special circumstances, the student may apply to have their FEE-HELP balance re-credited for the affected unit/s.

Conwal Institute will re-credit the Student’s FEE-HELP Balance if it is satisfied that Special Circumstances apply where:

- These circumstances are beyond their control, and
- These circumstances did not make their full impact on the student until on, or after the census date; and
- These circumstances were such that it was impracticable for the Student to complete the requirements for the Unit.

For circumstances to be beyond a Student’s control, the situation should be that which a reasonable person would consider is not due to the Student’s action or inaction, either direct or indirect, and for which the Student is not responsible. The situation must be unusual, uncommon or abnormal to be considered special circumstances.

Special circumstances do not include:

- Lack of knowledge or understanding of requirements for VET FEE-HELP assistance; or
- A Student’s incapacity to repay a VET FEE-HELP debt (repayments are income contingent and the Student can apply to the Australian Taxation Office for a deferral of a compulsory repayment in certain circumstances).

Each application for re-credit of a student’s FEE-HELP balance will be considered on its merits together with all supporting documentation substantiating the special circumstances claim.
